

Verwood Heathland Heritage Trust (08/08/11)

Chairman reported that the Trust has had a very successful quarter, income is consistent.

EDDC have applied for a Community Building Grant to put in bollards at the back of the Heritage Centre, this may need another site visit.

Verwood Historical Society pots are now on racks in the Museum

The Heritage Trust have been loaned a study on 'End of the line: Beechings Report' by William Lent and have been donated Nellie Hopkins pre 1931 account books.

There have been a few families coming to Verwood looking for family archives to research past and present families from this area.

Jo Taylor has been doing some research on 'The Albion Hotel' and used the archives from The Heritage Centre.